

THE CAYMAN AIDS FOUNDATION HIV 101 LECTURE APPLICATION

The theme of this year's "CAF" HIV & AIDS Community Awareness Lectures is "HIV ends with me" a concept which we hope will stimulate education, awareness, and personal responsibility in the fight against HIV. The theme is open to interpretation and flexible enough to account for differences in education philosophies, whether it is to promote abstinence, safe sex, regular HIV screening, an open dialogue with sexual partners, etc. The aim is to promote education and reduce the number of infections to zero.

About the foundation

The Cayman AIDS Foundation (CAF) is a community-based organization that provides education on the danger of, helps prevent the spread of, and gives support and guidance to all people living with and affected by, HIV & AIDS and STIs.

We believe that

- ✓ All people have equal intrinsic worth.
- ✓ The spiritual nature of human beings must find positive expression for life to have meaning and purpose.
- ✓ Each individual is ultimately responsible for his or her actions.
- ✓ Each person has the right to be safe and healthy.
- ✓ The family is the primary vehicle/unit of moral values and health education.
- ✓ People need each other.
- ✓ Education is vital for the survival and progress of a society.

Course Objectives

- ❖ Recognize, harness, and help your employees to successfully establish the tools needed to better secure a safe and healthy lifestyle.
